

Please Return
to Jr. Library

Installation Addenda

The outgoing Points of the Star keep their Stations until the Marshal presents the new Points to their chairs, then they rise, step to one side, and, in turn, say their lines. When finished they present emblematic flowers. When all are through, the song, "This is my Task" may be sung.

Adah (to new Adah)

The sword and veil are your emblems,
And you tell to those who wait,
The story of Jephtha's daughter,
Who bravely went to her fate.
(presents flowers)

Ruth,

The sheaf of grain is your emblem,
And you tell to the seeker of Truth,
They too must be meek in spirit,
Like the lowly gleaner, Ruth.
(presents flowers)

Esther,

The Crown and Scepter your emblems are
And you the knowledge will give,
Of Esther, the Queen, who risked her life,
That her beloved people might live.
(presents flowers)

Martha,

The broken column your emblem is,
It represents life at an end-
Tell the Seeker of Truth who comes to you,
The Lord is our one true Friend.
(presents flowers)

Electa,

The Cup you see is your emblem.
Tell those who knowledge would seek,
To give of their bounty freely,
If they too, blessings would reap.
(presents flowers)

(Each Point should, as she speaks of the emblem, point to them)